

YA GOVERNMENT DEGREE COLLEGE FOR WOMEN, CHIRALA

ACTION TAKEN REPORT: 2025-26

BY

ANTI RAGGING CELL

Women's colleges actively work to prevent ragging through various measures like forming anti-ragging committees, conducting awareness programs, and implementing strict policies. These efforts aim to create a safe and positive environment for all students, with a focus on zero tolerance for ragging.

Anti-Ragging Committee:

The college established a committee consisting of faculty, staff, and sometimes students to monitor the campus, address complaints, and take action against any instances of ragging.

Educating the students at large by adopting various means about the implications of the menace of ragging and related punishments there to.
Orienting the students and moulding their personality for a better cause.

"SAY NO TO RAGGING"

Our Institute has a zero-tolerance towards any act of ragging. Ragging in any form is banned inside and outside the campus. Strict action will be taken against persons flouting this rule; no leniency will be shown.

The institute has a well-established Discipline and Anti-Ragging Cell. This cell is formed in accordance with the regulations of the UGC.

The Cell's responsibility is to ensure that students maintain discipline in the classrooms and within the college campus. Members of the cell regularly go on rounds to every classroom to make note of delinquent behaviour and to make sure that the college campus is free from ragging and eve-teasing. The Cell takes severe punitive action against students indulging in such atrocious activities.

UGC Regulations on curbing the menace of Ragging. "SAY NO TO RAGGING"

Ragging in any form is totally prohibited in the institute.

Ragging is a serious crime and is punishable by law. Anyone found indulging in ragging will face immediate expulsion from the university and will also be debarred from pursuing a course at any other institution.

If you come across any instance of ragging in the Institute, please contact any of the committee members.

Awareness Programs:

Colleges conduct awareness campaigns to educate students about the definition of ragging, its consequences, and the importance of a safe and respectful campus environment.

Strict Disciplinary Actions:

Colleges have policies in place to take strict action against ragging, including lodging FIRs with the police and potentially cancelling admissions.

Anti Ragging Pledge:

The event is intended to make the students aware of the anti-ragging rules and make a pledge to not get involved in any kind of ragging activity. All promised that they won't indulge in Ragging or any form of violent behaviour and will contribute in making as "Ragging Free" College. The pledge has several motives:

- 1) Ensuring student safety and well-being
- 2) Promoting a Healthy academic atmosphere
- 3) Fostering respect and dignity
- 4) Preventing bullying and harassment
- 5) Creating awareness and legal compliance
- 6) Building trust and community
- 7) Empowerment and long-term change.

CONCLUSION: -

The students of the batch of 2025-26 from the college took the anti-ragging pledge. The students were guided by faculty coordinators to fill out the anti-ragging undertaking on the website www.antiragging.in as mandated by the University Grants Commission. Upon filling up of the undertaking, the students generated their reference number and downloaded their undertaking affidavit. Thereafter, the students took the anti-ragging pledge and important phone numbers were distributed among the students. The students were sensitized about the importance of a healthy and respectable environment for their holistic growth.
